

Museo del Territorio Biellese

Chiostro di San Sebastiano, Via Quintino Sella 54/b, 13900 Biella

Form compiled by Angela Deodato (archaeologist and curator), in collaboration with Davide Domenici

Introduction

The Museo del Territorio Biellese preserves 202 archaeological artefacts from different regions of Mesoamerica, Central America, the Northern Andes and the Central and Southern Andes, all of them originating from the collection assembled by the Biella industrialist Ugo Canepa (1915–2004). Since 26 October 2018 part of the collection has been displayed in a room specifically dedicated to pre-Columbian cultures.
